Rules: The Tour du Canada Award is sponsored by Tour du Canada. The award hopes to encourage members to visit and cycle in Provinces other than their home Province. For the purposes of the Tour du Canada award only Cross Canada cycling trips alone, in groups, supported or non-supported and cycling outside Canada do not count.

All information provided will be held in the strictest confidence by CKAP. CKAP and its associates agree that it will not sell, rent, or otherwise disclose information provided in this log to any third party except that CKAP and its associates may use the information to determine or present the awards as outlined in the program and to promote CKAP through their various publications.

CKAP will continue to stock short sleeve 15" & 19" zipper & long sleeve full zipper jerseys. Please pay for incentive awards when earned as this will enable CKAP to purchase CKAP cycling caps and socks and future new clothing but it requires members to pay for earned awards.

Due to the increased cost of medals and postage CKAP had no choice but to raise the price or go bust. The raise in price for awards started with the 2013 cycling log and season. Badges with certificate increase from $8.00 to $10.00 each including postage. Medals with certificate increase from $18.00 to $20.00 each including postage. Plaques with certificate increase from $35.00 to $40.00 each including postage. All major awards remain free. They are the Canadian male & female Olympic Goal, the international male & female Olympic Goal, The Hewes Challenge, The 100,000 km Club and the Tour du Canada-CKAP awards.
